DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR FAMILY, FRIENDS & GROUPS

1. It's Thanksgiving week! Share three things that you are grateful for that aren't things.
2. Does your family or group of friends have any Thanksgiving traditions? If so, what are they? When and how did the tradition start?
3. Have someone in the group read Psalm 100 out loud. While it is read, try to identify what you would label as the primary emotion/s of this Psalm. What are the reasons expressed in the Psalm for these emotions? (hint- look at verses 3 and 5)
4. Of the reasons listed from the previous question, which one is most significant to you right now? Explain.
5. When and how would you say that God first revealed Himself to you? Share the story.
6. In what ways do you find yourself trying to be God (even though you know you're not)? Try to be as specific as possible. What are the results of this?
7. Same question, but bigger picture: In what ways do you find our culture trying to be God (even though we know we're not)? Try to be as specific as possible. What are the results of this?
8. Pastor Eric pointed out (from verse 4) that one day, the gates will be closed (see Rev 21). What was the point? How can this inform and motivate us when it comes to the "reaching" value at our church?
9. Share if there are any anticipated opportunities to share the good news of God with others this holiday season. Pray for each other in this regard.
