

OUTLINE & QUESTIONS

OMNIPOTENCE

ERIC FERRIS | JUNE 14 & 15, 2025

Introduction:

Non-communicable attributes: _____, _____

Omnipresent, Omniscient, Sovereign, _____, Transcendent,

Self-Sufficient

Communicable attributes: _____, Justice, _____,

Wisdom, Holiness, Truthfulness, _____, _____,

Compassion

Omnipotence:

Omnipotence = unlimited _____, able to do _____

Lessons from Isaiah 40

So what?

1. I can _____

2. I can be _____

3. I can _____

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS FOR FAMILY, FRIENDS & GROUPS

1. Let's go ahead and get this question out of the way- Can God create a rock that he can't lift? Seriously, give it your best shot.
2. Pastor Eric told a story about a robber at his house. First, do you think there was a robber at his house? Second, how does the story relate to knowing who God is?
3. Read 1 Cor 13:12. Pastor Eric mentioned two extremes to avoid when it comes to knowledge. What are those extremes? Which one do you tend to gravitate towards more easily, and why do you think that is the case?
4. Pastor Eric said simply- God can. Is that enough of a definition? Are there things that you think must be included when talking about His omnipotence?
5. If everything we learn about God generates more questions, what types of questions emerge from God being omnipotent? If God can do anything, then why _____?
6. According to the sermon, God's omnipotence means I can relax. What was meant by that?
7. According to the sermon, God's omnipotence means I can be me. What was meant by that?
8. According to the sermon, God's omnipotence means I can trust God. What was meant by that?
9. Of those three- I can relax, be me, and trust God, which one is most applicable to your life right now? Why and what are you going to do about it?