

Remember this:

God loves you

More than you could ever imagine.

He loves you with a love that has no beginning and no ending.

It is a love you do not have to earn and you could never lose.

It doesn't matter if you feel like a success or a failure. God loves you.

It doesn't matter if you feel alone or surrounded by friends. God loves you.

It doesn't matter if you are righteous or guilty. God loves you.

God loves you enough to send his Son

to live for you

and die for you

and be raised for you, and even right now Jesus is before the Father, speaking words of love on your behalf, and he will return to renew you and all of creation because he loves you.

This is the most true thing about you: you are loved by God.

Before anything else can be said about you, this must be said:

God loves you and that will never change.

So don't forget it.
