

DISCIPLINE POLICY

At Camp Commotion, we believe all campers should have a fun, positive environment in which they feel safe. In order to ensure this, we follow a logical system of discipline for campers, focused on positive reinforcement.

For minor behavioral issues, the following process is used:

1. Camper is redirected by Camp Staff, and the camper is made aware of the consequences if the behavior continues.
2. Campers are issued consequences, such as loss of privileges or removal from the group for a short time.
3. Camper reports to a member of the Camp Leadership Team, receives an additional consequence, and parent contact may be made (by phone, e-mail, or at pick-up), depending on the severity of the issue.
4. If behavior continues, campers will be removed immediately from the group, and parent contact will be made. Campers may be dismissed from camp for the remainder of the day.

For significant behavioral issues (including but not limited to physical violence, intimidation, or bullying), campers will be immediately removed from the group, and parent contact will be made. The leadership of Camp Commotion reserves the right to require immediate dismissal of campers under these circumstances. Campers may not return to camp until a discussion has been held between the camper, parents or guardians, and the Camp Leadership.

No refunds are given in the event of a camper's removal from camp due to any of the above.

LIABILITY WAIVER

As a parent or legal guardian, in registering my child for Camp Commotion, I am waiving and releasing Camp Commotion and Christ Community Church from all claims and liability for injury my child may sustain while participating in camp activities.

Further, if my child will be taking medication at Camp Commotion, I give my permission for it to be administered by employees of Camp Commotion and agree to indemnify and hold harmless Camp Commotion and its employees against any claims arising out of the administration of medication.

I agree to permit Camp Commotion to use photographs, video images of my child, or artwork of any kind created by my child, for the use and benefit of Camp Commotion within the camp, in publications, on social media, or in the development and promotion of programs. Personal information will not be used or given to any other organization.

EMERGENCY MEDICAL CONSENT

I hereby give consent to the administration of any medical treatment, which may be necessary in the opinion of a licensed medical professional or medical facility, in case of injury or illness, if I cannot be reached.

I further give consent for the Camp Director or other senior staff of Camp Commotion to call 911 immediately if my child is in need of urgent medical attention. Calls will be made to parents immediately following any decision to call 911.

MEDICATION WAIVER

I understand and agree that, as the parent/guardian of this child, I am primarily responsible for the provision and administration of any medication that my child requires.

However, while my child is in the care of Camp Commotion, I authorize Camp Commotion and its employees to administer or attempt to administer lawfully prescribed medication that my child requires, or to allow my child to self-administer necessary medication under the supervision of Camp Commotion employees.

I agree to indemnify and hold harmless Camp Commotion and its employees against any claims arising out of the administration or the child's self-administration of medication. I further understand that I am responsible for the provision of necessary medication for my child to Camp Commotion, and for providing the medication name, dosage, and frequency to Camp Commotion.

DRESS CODE POLICY

At Camp Commotion, we strive to create a respectful and positive environment that aligns with the values of Christ Community Church. To maintain a setting that is appropriate for all campers, we ask that everyone be mindful of their attire.

The following guidelines are in place for the duration of camp:

Clothing should be respectful and appropriate for a church setting.

Please refrain from wearing items that display offensive or negative messages, including but not limited to:

Inappropriate imagery or symbols, i.e., depictions of violence, witchcraft, etc.

Political references or slogans

Any clothing that could be considered offensive to others, as determined by Camp Commotion staff.

If a camper is found wearing clothing that does not meet these guidelines, parents or guardians will be contacted, and the camper will be asked to either change into appropriate clothing or be picked up for the day.

We appreciate your cooperation in ensuring that our camp remains a positive, respectful environment for all.

TECHNOLOGY POLICY

At Camp Commotion, we are committed to creating an engaging and focused environment where campers can connect with God and each other, free from distractions. As part of this commitment, campers are not allowed to bring personal electronic devices to camp.

This includes, but is not limited to, devices such as:

Cell phones

Portable game systems

Smart Watches (e.g., Apple watches)

Tablets

Laptops

If a camper brings technology to camp, it will be collected by camp staff and held at the Leadership Desk. The device can be retrieved at the end of the camp day by the camper's parents, guardians, or authorized pickup person. Thank you for helping us create a fun and distraction-free camp experience for everyone!

WAITLIST POLICY

Camp Commotion is a popular summer day camp, and spots can fill up fast. We endeavor to ensure every child has the opportunity to participate in camp, but waitlists are necessary to ensure we maintain a balanced staff-camper ratio throughout the week.

Here's what to expect if your child is on a waitlist:

1. We'll email you no later than Wednesday, before the week of camp you've waitlisted for, to let you know if there's a spot available. We try to fill open spots as soon as they become available, but last-minute cancellations do happen.
2. While you are on a waitlist, we highly recommend you register your child/children for any open spots that are available. This guarantees your child/children a spot at Camp Commotion, and we can transfer them into their preferred crew if space arises.

There is no registration or cancellation fee for waitlist spots. If you register for a second choice and your first choice spot opens up, you will not be charged to move your child to their first choice. However, once you register, should you decide not to have your child participate in camp at all, the cancellation and refund policy will apply.

3. If a spot is available, we'll email you. You will have 48 hours to respond back to accept the open spot. If we don't hear back, we can no longer guarantee your spot, and we'll move on to the next person on the waitlist.
4. Once you accept an open spot at Camp Commotion, the registration fee will become due. This will follow our standard cancellation policy, whereby partial refunds will only be given for cancellations that happen 14 days prior to the start of the given week of camp registered for. Cancellations made after this point will not receive a refund. Please see our website for more information about our cancellation policy.
