This resource is designed to help you to plan out your Community Group schedule for the upcoming 2026-2027 ministry year.

Date	Sermon Series	Sermon Series Description	Bible Savvy	Community Group Discussion
8/15/2026	Community is our Middle Name	The title plays off "Community" in Christ Community Church's name. The driving idea is that every aspect of CCC's mission (belonging, growing, serving, reaching) is not meant to be pursued individually, but together. Each week takes one of those four values and shows why community is the essential context for it.	Ephesians

9/12/2026	Why I Follow Jesus	This is an invitation-friendly series built around personal encounters with Jesus in the Gospels. Each week explores a different character's story through the question: if you asked this person why they follow Jesus, what would they say? The teaching will draw out what is genuinely compelling about Jesus through the lens of these specific encounters.	Amos

10/17/2026	Inspiring Stories	Kerry Wood, a pitcher for the Chicago Cubs, will be visiting our church and sharing his story and faith journey.	Romans
10/24/2026	The Dignity Revolution	This series examines the doctrine of the the image of God and traces its ethical implications through specific Old Testament laws. People assume the Old Testament law is archaic and backwards, but it reflects a radical, countercultural commitment to human dignity rooted in the belief that every person is an image of God. The series will apply this framework concretely to contemporary flash-point issues: immigration, abortion, poverty, and other contexts where people are overlooked, mistreated, or exploited. Each week will anchor in a specific Old Testament legal text and draw the line from that text to a present-day application.	Romans

11/21/2026	The Dignity Revolution		2 Timothy / Titus
11/28/2026	The Question Behind the Question	All of us are asking questions – about life, about God, about whether things will be okay. But underneath those questions are deeper desires we don't always put into words. This Advent series digs below the surface to name what we're really longing for, organized around the four themes of Advent: Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love. Each week will explore one of those longings, why we want it so badly, why nothing in this world quite delivers it, and how Jesus satisfies it.	Mark

1/2/2027	Bible Savvy: 1 Corinthians	First Corinthians is Paul writing to a church that is a mess, and that's exactly what makes it so relevant. The people in Corinth were dealing with division, moral failure, confusing ethical questions, and disagreements about worship. Sound familiar? This Bible Savvy series works through some of the book's most debated and difficult passages, covering topics like church unity, church discipline, singleness and marriage, food sacrificed to idols, and the gifts of tongues and prophecy. The goal is to show that Paul wasn't just solving ancient problems, he was wrestling with the same kinds of complications real churches and real people face today.	1 Corinthians

2/13/2027	Here is Your God: A Bible Savvy Series in Isaiah	This Lent series takes the whole church through the book of Isaiah together, alongside a congregational reading plan. Each week we'll look at passages that show us who God is — not just his holiness and justice, but also his grace and compassion. Thematic Verse: "This is what the high and exalted One says — he who lives forever, whose name is holy: 'I live in a high and holy place, but also with the one who is contrite and lowly in spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly and to revive the heart of the contrite.'" 4/3/2027	Steps: The Path to True Freedom	The 12 steps of Alcoholics Anonymous have helped millions of people find freedom, but the principles behind them aren't just for people in recovery. They're for everyone. This post-Easter series, based on John Ortberg's book Steps , works through those principles over 7 weeks: being honest with yourself, surrendering to God, taking a real inventory of your faults, growing in humility, making amends with people you've hurt, living one day at a time, and helping others along the way. The conviction driving the series is that the recovery framework puts words to struggles that are universal and deeply human, and that real spiritual freedom runs comes by embracing these postures and practices.
